

Total annual salt applied

The City of Minneapolis has been tracking the amount of salt applied to City streets and alleys since 2001. This graph shows the tons of salt purchased by Public Works for snow and ice control on streets annually.

This results in an overall reduction of salt applied. There has also been a reduction in the amount of salt applied relative to both the days below freezing and the inches of snowfall in the City.